

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

NEIL SURESH CHANDRAN, and BRYAN LEE,

Defendants.

4:22CR3077

ORDER

Defendants have orally moved to continue the conference call (Filing No. 119) because Defendants and their counsel need additional time to fully review the discovery. The motion to continue is unopposed. The court finds the motion should be granted. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) Defendants' motion to continue, (Filing No. 119), is granted.
- 2) As to both defendants, the conference call previously scheduled to be held on November 7, 2023, is continued. A telephonic conference with counsel will be held before the assigned magistrate judge at 10:30 a.m. on February 7, 2024 to discuss setting any pretrial motion deadline or hearing needed, a change of plea hearing, or the date of the jury trial and deadlines for disclosing experts as required under Rule 16. Counsel for all parties shall use the conferencing instructions provided by the court to participate in the call.
- 3) The ends of justice served by granting the motion to continue outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial, and as to both defendants, the additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, the time between today's date and February 7, 2024 shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, because although counsel have been duly diligent, additional time is needed to adequately prepare this case for trial and failing to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1), (h)(6) & (h)(7). Failing to timely object to this order as provided under this court's local rules will be deemed a waiver of any right to later claim the time should not have been excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

Dated this 6th day of November, 2023.
